“ I had a lot of good times with Adair during the years we worked at Lobdell-Emery. I will always remember Adair with a smile and I will miss him.

“ Words can not express our sadness in knowing we will not see Adair again in this world. While long distance family is hard, loving Adair is easy. We'll always remember our last time together when Adair and Tima were here at our house and how much fun we had. Paul and Dorothy

“ To the Seidelmann Family,

At a time such as this, treasure one of Gods precious gifts to us, memories. Allow them to comfort you and know that one day soon, we will no longer have to experience such pain brought upon us by our 1st human parents. At his Fathers request, Jesus gave his life for us so that we might have everlasting life in a new world. That was Gods most precious gift! So live for the day when we can say: "Life Without End At Last!" Isaiah 25:11
