“ I will always remember Chief, he was a great man. When I was told that he was at Ancilla I would do my best to visit him every week after I got off work and was disappointed when I was not able to visit him after COVID it. Chief and I were friends that served our country in different time periods, so when I seen him I would call him squid because that was what the NAVY sailors were called. Rest In Peace Chief. Prayers of strength, comfort, & encouragement to your family.
