“ Bereaved loved ones of Elizabeth Moreau. Most of you do not know me, but I want to express my condolences to all of her family. I am Elizabeth's cousin on her father's side. In fact, I believe Uncle Edward and Aunt Sophie were my godparents. Our family, Clarence & Jessie Schroeder and their children Margaret and Bill lived about two blocks away from Edward's family on the east side of La Porte. Both families many years in these residences. Elizabeth's family were some what older than ours, and so we didn't see each other alot except on family occasions. I have pictures of the two families together for my First Communion Party.
The article in the La Porte Herald Argus was very nice--and enlightening. I was unaware that Elizabeth had children living in La Porte. And so many grand children and great grand children. She was blessed to have her husband with her for so long.

Although Christmas time is a sad time for a loved one to die, you can celebrate Elizabeth's life and all the good things she meant to each of you. I'll keep her in my prayers. Condolences---Margaret (Schroeder) Miller

“ Paula and family,
We send our deepest sympathy at the loss of your Mother. Dan lost his Mom a few years ago and we still miss her and find ourselves repeating her words of advice often to our family.
If we can ever help in any way, please, call us.
