“ My father-in-law Leroy was a gentle man full of love and compassion. It would warm my heart to have him visit with my husband and our 3 daughters when he visited his winter home in Florida. His eyes would light up when he would see our daughters and loved to listen to their accomplishments and dreams! He always complimented me on my cooking and he was a joy to be around. That is why our two older daughters always referred to him as "Grandpa Joy". Our youngest daughter had her own nickname that she called him which was "Pee-Paw". Leroy, my sweet gentle father-in-law, you will be deeply missed. We know that you are dancing with Jesus in heaven totally healed and enjoying the joy of the Lord! With our undying love...Kim, Mark, Hannah, Sarah, and Rhea Rose Whitaker
