

Kenneth Klinedinst

August 5, 1938 - September 7, 2019

WALKERTON-Kenneth L. Klinedinst, 81, of Walkerton, IN, passed away September 7, 2019 in the home that he contributed to building 54 years ago.

Ken was born on August 5, 1938 in Plymouth, IN as the only child to the late Orville and Neva Klinedinst. Ken was a 1956 graduate of Walkerton High School.

On June 17, 1961, Ken was united in marriage at the Walkerton United Methodist Church to Sharon Ream. During their 58-year marriage, he co-owned J & K Heating and Cooling Service for over 30 years. He was also a member of the Walkerton Masonic Lodge, Tyner I.O.O.F and the Scottish Rite.

In addition to his devotion to the welfare of his family, Ken enjoyed watching the Chicago Cubs and relished the fact that he got to see his beloved team win the World Series. He was also a devout Mopar enthusiast and dedicated gardener. Like his father before him, he had a reputation for growing the best tasting melons and sharing them with folks all around the area. Anybody who came in contact with Ken knew his boundless sense of humor and innate ability to share his love of "B.S."

Ken is survived by his wife Sharon; two children, Sherry Klinedinst of South Bend, IN and Mike Klinedinst of Crossville, TN; three granddaughters, Chloe, Katie and Carly; and one granddog, Gracie.

Cremation has transpired. A private memorial celebration will take place beside his garden at a later date. Memorial contributions may be directed to Shriners Hospitals for Children at <https://www.shrinershospitalsforchildren.org/shc/donate>.

“ Sharon:

I remember attending a wedding which you were also in attendance. I know you as a teacher in the Walkerton area sometimes teaching music/piano. Life is different after losing a life partner of many years. You are on your own again! Cook what/when you want, go where/when you want, but you do all this alone. There are some grief groups available. I know a tea party at Hospice in Plymouth the 4th Tuesday of each month. You would be with others with your same loss. Maybe consider? Just come or call to confirm.

Proves how much I knew. I'm so glad how many years God gave you two together which proves their is true love, if we just wait for it and stay dedicated....Sending you and yours much love and many prayers....
