“ Amy Eason >Myrna Dipert's Facebook page:

Obituaries are funny things, and while they are important, they are really just a way that a family can announce the passing of a loved one. For the most part obituaries capture a snippet of who a person is and who they are related to by blood. What they often leave out is those people that mattered the most. If I could add to Myrna's obituary I would include 3 other "sisters". Janice, Bonnie and Jackie whom she loved and shared many meals and adventures with over the years. Sara who I think she saw as a daughter in many ways, and of course Soren her great niece. I do not believe that there is a person of Myrna's acquaintance that has not heard about or seen pictures of Soren. These are the people that, in my opinion, she loved the most and that if she had written her own obituary (and I'm surprised she didn't) she would have included. Although I am not an official part of the Dipert family, I want these ladies to know that their love and dedication to Myrna is recognized and appreciated by Danny and I.

“ Myrna and I became fast friends back in the early 1970s and always had each other's backs. She was a true friend in every sense of the word. She has left a huge void in my life and I will miss her until the day we meet again. Rest in peace, Moonie! ❤️😭

“ Myrna's pride and joy was her great niece Soren. She loved my daughter and showed her. Myrna helped raise “our girl” as she called her. She was an aunt to me and showered Soren with love any chance she got. Aunt Meanie was amazing and I see that wild fun loving spark Myrna had in Soren.

“ To my oldest and dearest friend, I can't imagine you not being across the road to run to. You have been in my life since Craig and I were little. We grew up together at the lake, thru school, and even in our wild & crazy days. I will cherish every picture and memory we shared, and to your entire family, you are in my prayers. I will miss you Moon Beam. Teresa Ochs
