“Dad, I already miss our morning talks. They we conversations of laughter, tears, and insights. The bond you and Joe shared meant the world to me. You were the glue to holding the siblings together. You were our dad, friend, disciplinarian, advisor and so much more. I want you to know how happy I am that you no longer carry guilt which you never deserved. You are now our Angel watching over us. I love you Dad so much, and miss you. I look forward to seeing you again in heaven. God blessed us with you, and I am so thankful. Until we see each other again. “Your Punkin”. Yvonne
