

Albert "Joe" Singleton Jr

December 14, 1952 - May 10, 2026

Albert "Joey" Joseph Singleton Jr. was born to Albert Joseph Singleton and Velma E. (Elder) Singleton on December 14, 1952 in Knox, Indiana. He died in his home May 10, 2026.

Joey was an only child and is survived by his many, many cousins. He spent his entire life in Starke County, Indiana where he and his father ran auto salvage business.

Joey was loved by many people. He was always polite and cared about others. He loved to visit family and friends. His many cats were his great concern. He couldn't say no to a homeless cat. He loved the movies, playing cards and just visiting people. He will be missed by many.

He wanted no funeral or memorial. He said those who knew him would know how he felt.

Tribute Wall

WM

“ Joey was a good friend to all he knew, good memories seeing Him, Joe, and Ted at the yard. He always had kind words for all he knew. He was certainly known as a kind gentle soul. He did however, truly enjoy a good clean practical joke. He shocked me more than once, with a condenser mounted under a chair. RIP Friend

William Marsh - May 21 at 03:57 PM