“ My earliest memory of Amy was when she was about a year old and I was 3. Aunt Trudie had dropped her and Jeff off at our house so my mom could watch them, and they were standing at our screen door looking outside and crying. Finally they settled down, and I asked my mom, "What's wrong with them?" She tried to shush me, but it was too late...they just started wailing again!

For many summers when we were young, Amy used to stay with us the week of Bible school. I still remember her sleeping on the floor next to my bed, and we'd stay up late and talk. She was the cousin I was closest to in my childhood, and she always accepted and loved people just as they were.

I'm so grateful for facebook allowing me to reconnect with my cousin last year. She was a very loving woman, and I wish I had written to her more often. I love her and even though we haven't seen each other for many years, I'm going to miss her.

“ Amy was in my thoughts often, and I wish I would have called her more and told her how much I loved her. She was a great sister - with a HUGE heart!! We had several great times together. From growing up together, and her making us younger sisters do all of her chores while mom was away (ha ha), to us staying up late playing Yahtzee or Uno at her place when she lived in Indy. She always kept us laughing with her sense of humor. I rememeber so many things about her as a sister! She will be greatly missed!Love ya Sis!!

“ Amy, since meeting up with you again on Facebook, and talking to you on the phone that day, I have prayed often for you and your son in prison. We're so sad here to learn of your passing. There are many friends and an unused pool cue in Hamlet remembering your touch.

“ I have known Amy since our babies were babies abck in the 80's. I moved away from Knox and haven't kept in touch with her. But she has been on mind so much the last few weeks and I decided to look her up and see how she was and instead i found this! If Rod or Joe or Earl could Email me and let me know what happened. "I would really appreciate it. I think I am in disbelief!! I agree with all the memories I read about her. A big heart, a matter of fact girl. A good mother. A beautiful smile!!

Please someone get in contact with me and let me know what happened. I don't know who to call to find out.
