“ Anna was my best friend on & off since kindergarten. She was one of a kind. A mischievous, crazy child & I think that’s what got me into being her friend. As we got older, we went through so much drama and middle school fun together. We grew a little more into high school and got so much closer. Despite fights or drama, we still cared for each other or got back as friends again. I moved away and..I didn’t see her. Her last text to me was a picture of us, in middle school. And I won’t forget that, along with those memories. Anna, I do miss your stupid jokes, your weird laugh, and somewhat helpful advice about stupid boys I don’t care about now. I was gonna see you at your work but by the time we came back, it was closed. God, I wish I would’ve seen you for the last time. Get one of your hugs, where I can smell your slightly strong perfume or lotion. You’d probably have some gloss on, and your eyes would be shining. I miss it. I miss you. I hope wherever you are, you are safe and don’t feel any pain..you don’t deserve to. I love you.
