“ From the moment Bev arrived at Selfridge ANGB she was a shining star and loved by all. You could ALWAYS expect a big smile when you walked into Bldg 880. She always brought 100% to the operation of the Squadron and was an expert in many facets of of the CE function. Bev was a true Patriot and will be sadly missed by all who knew her. RIP Bev and a big THANK YOU for all you did for the success of the 927th CES

“ I met Beverly through Lewis DeVore. Beverly and I have talked at great lengths several times. Beverly was a very sweet and caring lady with a beautiful smile and a great personality. She will be missed by all who loved her Revelation 21:3-4 has always helped me in times like this because there God assures us that Death and Sickness will be done away with forever. My sincere condolences to her Family and Friends.
