“ So many memories come to mind when I think of my brother Blaine. Even though he was 13 years older than me, we spent a lot of time together while I was growing up. Whether we were playing video games, messing around on the computer, watching soap operas, or laughing at cartoons, he always made life more fun.

Blaine never knew a stranger. He could strike up a conversation with anyone and make them feel like a friend. He was a wonderful brother, a loving husband, a great father, an amazing uncle to all of his nieces and nephews, and a loyal friend to so many.

I will miss his stories, his laugh, his big heart, and simply having him here. The world feels a little quieter without him in it, but I am grateful for the memories we shared and the love he gave so freely. He will always hold a special place in my heart and will be deeply mis
