“ I'll be forever grateful for my late grandmother, and great-grandfather giving me the life that they did. They did something that they really didn't have to do, but they did. They took me in, and raised me as though I were their own son. Things weren't always perfect, but I would never trade the life I had thanks to them. I lacked nothing, and was given everything especially their unwavering unconditional love.

I couldn't have asked for better grandparents. That is why when the time came to reciprocate for the unconditional love was concerned I did. Where their various health issues were concerned it wasn't always easy. They had their good, and bad days. At the end of the day however that unconditional love never faltered. They both told me respectively that whenever their time came to leave this world I didn't have to feel one iota of regret. Though I know there will be times when in the back of my mind I'll ask myself whether or not I did enough for these two wonderful people.

I love you Grandma and Grandpa. We all do. Looking forward to seeing the two of you again someday.

With love forevermore,

Jarid, and family.

P.S. Give great grandpa, and Brutus a hug for us.
