“ Cathy was the best friend I ever had while growing up. I have very good memories of the great times we shared. I only wish we had stayed in touch, time goes so quickly and we put off what we should do at the moment. I loved her dearly! ”

“ She didn't have to be our mom but she chose to and she did a great job at it.. Even though as adults she told me that she wished she had done better. I always told her that she did a wonderful job and that she helped me through all of my life lessons. I do mean all. I always went to her with questions, doubts and concerns she always did her best to guide me. I LOVE YOU MOM. Forever, always and no matter what. ”

“ My Heart is torn. I so miss those days with our Family the laughter and Love. Cathie's dad inspired me her mom the most dearest. And I know we we all be together for the heavenly reunion. I'm sure she will leave a void in many lives. Prayers to Cathie's family and friends. ”

“ I remember Cathie telling me of sitting in her dad's shop and having "conversations" with Uncle Chuck after he passed away -- she missed him so. We will miss her as well, though we have no doubt that she is in heaven with Jesus, whom she loved and followed. Cathie raised a good son and chose to mother others. That says a lot about her. She lived a quiet life, tending her ducks, her pond, her garden, her Mountain Man, her grandkids and the church kitchen. I'll always be grateful to the way she and those ladies served us after our dad's death and the deaths of our brothers. She loved the song "I Can Only Imagine" and it helps me now to remember that.
