“ Of course, I still think of him as the little kid "Chuckey" that Scott used to play ball with at the horse shows. I remember that every time we went out to eat, Chuckey always got his food much later than everyone else. He never got upset about it, and just laughed. Even today, when one person isn't served on time, we refer to them as "Chuckey"!

“ Milinda & Charlene:

So sorry I was not able to be at the visitation and service for Chuck Know that I was there in spirit. I have so many memories of Chuck. Mom & Dad wanted a New Years baby, but he decided to join the family early. my memories and pictures of the three of you are cemented in my head and heart.

He left way too early, but he is celebrating his new being with your Mom, Dad, and all the loved ones waiting on us to join together again.

You two girls have been so strong thru the loss of so many loved ones.

You cared, provided, and watched over him as Mom would have if still here.

He always told me how much he enjoyed time with you girls and the boys and how much he missed Doll, Chuck, Betty and Don.

Well there is one grand reunion in Heaven.

May God be with you and guide now and in the weeks ahead.

Love, Marlene
