“ So much I would like to say to you if you were still here....just a short time ago you were the ROCK that kept me together when Carrie was sick and in the hospital. Not knowing the future you and I talked about how we could help Todd if need be to help finish raising the kids. God heard our prayers and we got her diagnosis of MS and we just knew we had to be a support for her! The night before she got out of hospital you set the kids down with me and explained everything in detail of their moms sickness and what you expected of each of them.....everyone of those kids listened without an argument. They all truly respect you.....you were an awesome example of a loving uncle! You were the shoulder I cried on when my world was shaken.....your texts and calls and Huggs I will miss! What will I do without you little brother? While you are up there could you please ask God to heal Carrie! I know you want a cure as bad as I do for MS. Thank you for your strength and loving me into your beautiful family as you did! My heart is broken and will never be the same without you.....I promise to be there for Carrie as you would be thru this storm in her life. Always. Forever. I love you so very much!

“ So very sorry to hear about this tremendous loss. My memories of Chris remind me of how kind and thoughtful he was. When he was a child, he had a natural peacemaker quality that seemed exceptional for someone his age. I imagine this grew throughout his life. He had a lot to offer, and from reading all that he has done, it's apparent he continued to live by his generous spirit as an adult. Our deepest sympathies especially to Addison, Aunt Pam and my Krulik cousins.
