“ Mr. Frazier was one of my WWII heroes. One of an outstanding generation of Americans who went to war to keep America free and strong. Willing to sacrifice themselves for the good of their families and this nation. I understand a man of faith and service. I did not know him for very long, but honored to have met him. May he rest in peace.

“ Mr. Frazier was a tremendous mentor to me (John) as a young Christian. He not only talked the talk of a Christian but walked the walk. Both he and Mrs. Frazier were some of the most godly people we have ever known. They both had wonderful and encouraging spirits. We shall never forget them and the impact they had on our lives. Heaven gained a true saint.

“ I never heard a swear word come out of my Uncle Dan's mouth. He was big on "dad gummit" and "dad burn it". He wore his faith in God as a badge of honor and I always respected and loved him for that. RIP in the company of your Father in heaven dear uncle.
