“ I remember one time Dan came to my house and my niece Haley was there and he ask her why she stole his name and Haley (only 4yrs old) told him it was her name and a good name and he told her yes it is. I asked her last night and she said yes I remember him and he would play games with us also.

“ Dan was a fun person to be around. Always a good sense of humor. We played lots of games of cards at RY and other activities. The last time I saw him was at the RY Reunion. Talked over past experiences. I pray the Lord will be with his family during this time of adjustment.

“ I knew Dan quite well during the early 1970s when we were both in Indiana Rural Youth. I was in St Joseph County while he was in Marshall. All of the "RYers" had such great fun doing so many things around the state of Indiana back then. I remember square dancing and I believe doing the polka with Dan! I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Happy birthday, buddy. I miss your laugh so much....you meant the world to me, and I am pretty sure you knew that. I will visit the baby geese in the spring at the park, and I will tell them about you.....and that stupid round barn joke that always cracked you up. You're in my heart forever, Daniel.

“ Dan was not only a great brother, but a true friend! We always looked out for each other, spoke the best of each other, and were part of each other's lives even when we lived in different states. He never complained, even through the struggles of his cancer treatments. He was a very sociable guy and loved to do things with his friends and family. You are terribly missed, Dan!

“ One of the things I'll remember about my Uncle Dan was all the card games we played over the years. His laugh when he'd beat us to a play still makes me smile. He wrestled with us on the family room floor, and never seemed to miss a birthday, always sending us cards. Rest in peace Uncle Dan.
