“ When I was younger I practically lived at the nobles during the summer and during the school year when I could, and boy did I love O.H.'s 67 GTO and Davies 67 CHEVELLE, both the same color, I remember the day I road in his chevelle, cause ever since because of Davie I've loved those classic cars, chevelles being my favorite THANKS FOR THAT RIDE DAVIE!

“ Dave thank you for being the person you were. Today was a testament to how much you were loved. You brought so much happiness to Jennifer these last 6 years. And what should have been a lifetime was cut way too short. We all are blessed for the gift you gave us in Drew & Alex. Your spirit will live on through them. May you RIP. 🕊️

“ Dave showed others the meaning of the word “courage” during his battle with cancer. He once told me he wasn’t facing the fight alone for he knew his wife Jennifer, his 3 beautiful children and family had his back. This says alot about Dave and those who loved him for he passed knowing he was so loved by so many.

“ Davey was my life long buddy. Who would have thought that our crazy idea of us both building race cars while in high school, would have led us both to so many different friends and opportunities. Would eventually lead Dave to a 25 year career at His work place, where he made so many great friends. Dave was always there for me, thru the good times and even more so thru the bad. I could tell stories for days about Dave. I gonna miss you brother!
