“ I remember many times, Gene and I spent at their house, playing cards and just hanging out. Before Gene and I married, there were almost weekly visits for card games. I loved Jeanette, but back then, I was a little afraid of Don (Gene called him "Old Man"), because he seemed so gruff back then! I still recall all the laughter during those times. I think deep down he had a heart a gold. I know he loved Jeanette and his kids to the moon and back. We had so many laughs together, sitting around their table playing cards. My sympathy to all of you! Cathy

“ I am keeping you all in my prayers. Remembering all the good times we had growing up together in Dyer. The summer baseball, tanning in the yard, Monopoly games outside, water fights. Just sitting around together and visiting. It was so nice to grow up next to family! My Mom remembers when she was dating my Dad, your Dad was always joking and pulling pranks. Good times. The four of them even went to Ely, Mn. right after my Mom and Dad were married. It was their honeymoon. My Mom said she and Jeanette spent it frying fish! I am sure there was a great reunion in heaven! Love you guys!
