“ My daddy was the hardest working man I ever met. He instilled into my work ethic. He always told me when we were in his semi truck that if a man won't get up to go to work for the ones he loves, how can he call himself a man. He told me that he got his work ethic from his daddy. I'm so proud of every moment I got to spend with you dad. I am so grateful for every single minute you spent with me. Sitting on the back porch drinking coffee will never be the same without you. Thank you dad. I love you
