“ Lewis & Julia Potter
God bless you Ernest and your family. We had the joy of meeting you many years ago you became a true friend. I remember one day you came with your car and you had 4 of your dogs in it, you told me all their names and had all their own personalities and we had a good laugh talking about them. You and your family love those dogs at the time you had 18 of them. You and your family are the best You and your family will allway be remembered in our prayers takecare good friend. God bess all of you.
