

Esther M. Freet

December 8, 1933 - June 3, 2024

Esther Mae Freet of Grovertown passed away peacefully on Monday, June 3, 2024, in her home following an illness. She was born on December 8, 1933, in Knox to the late Arthur and Ida Troyer and was 90 years-old at the time of her death.

Esther lived in the area her entire life and was a retired Laborer. She loved watching hummingbirds and was a proud homebody. Most of all her family was her life as she cherished them all dearly. This was evident by how it would lighten her day whenever she was with her grandkids, and she loved spending time with them all.

She is survived by three sons Rick Freet of Grovertown, Rodney Freet of Ober, and Randy Freet of Texas; several grandchildren, great grandchildren, and great greatgrandchildren. Esther is preceded in death by her parents; one son Ron Freet; and one grandchild.

Esther had decided to be cremated upon her death, which has been done. There are no services or viewing planned at this time.

I didn't know Aunt Esther well, but remember my dad taking me to visit with her often when I was little. All the Troyer siblings are together with Grandpa & Grandma Troyer.
