“ There are no words to express the gratitude and love I have for you, Grandpa. Thank you for sacrificing your man-cave/billiards room when you had to accommodate two toddlers coming to live with you after mom and dad’s divorce. Thank you for never being too tired after work to play restaurant or grocery store. Thank you for giving me a ‘C’ when we asked you to “grade” our coloring pages when we were 5/6 years old and showing me nothing in life is given, but earned (even though I was devastated 😭). Thank you for always showing up, thank you for showing me what a real spouse and man is, by taking care of Grandma through her Alzheimer’s so she didn’t have to live in a nursing home. I will forever miss our Kings Corner tournaments, vacations in Florida, napping while you watch NASCAR or the western channel, and watching you laugh at the antics of your great grandkids. There is not enough time or space on this page to fully explain what you (and Grandma) meant to Veronica and I, and honestly, I don’t think anyone would truly understand. You were not only a grandparent but a father figure and a true definition of a man. I hope and pray Aiden is half the man that you were. This isn’t goodbye, it is until I see you again, Grandpa. ❤️
