“ Jackie, I am so very sorry that you lost your best friend. but remember that he is in a better place! You were in his life for 28years. in good times and bad. All that you did for him and his family im sure was appreciated by Gene, and he told me many times how grateful he was. You will get through this with your family that loves you dearly! GOD BLESS YOU!

“ Dear Jackie, I am so sorry for your loss. I know after being with Gene for 28 years through all the good and bad times it is devastating to lose him and you feel like you have lost a part of yourself. I only knew Gene for a few years but I truely think you were the light of his life and he loved you dearly. Never let anyone take that from you, hold on to those memories and smile when you think of all those years and the times together. those memories will keep him alive always in your heart.. Love and prayers for you at this time...

“ Aunt Jackie, I came across this and thought about you. It doesn't really matter why no how nor when its just never easy to loose your best friend. You did so much together, you shared ideas too. Now time alone is so very hard. For both family and you. Thinking about so many past events, the places that you went and all the times you spent. The future looks scary, how will it be alone? What will happen to you, when your future's so unknown? Just remember that the person no longer by your side would ever want you miserable. You know that can't be denied. So give yourself the privilege of some time and space. Be patient and caring about yourself. Take all you can embrace. Memories will be there. His love never goes away. Life is different now, so take it day by day. Don't forget that there are others who will stand along your side. They will be happy to be there for you and with them you can confide. Don't feel like you have been punished, and life is unfair. Just remember the person whom you have lost and the love you both shared.....By Frada Aunt, you will always be surrounded by people who love you and want the best for you. Your true family and friends will be there for you no matter what. We love you and will get through anything together!!

“ Aunt Jackie, I am so sorry for your loss. I hope you will find comfort and peace remembering how Gene's face lit up when he saw your beautiful face. The tenderness and love that the two of you shared was captured in many photos. You have 28 years of memories to hold close to your heart. I am sorry that you were excluded from the obituary. Everyone who knew Gene, knows you were his life partner and the love of his life.
