“ It was such a pleasure to be Huck's physician. He was a man who bore his health problems with such dignity. It was also a pleasure to care for so many of his extended family. Just to see his face light up when he talked about going out fishing. I still laugh thinking about him in the winter with his fur hat atop his head. A man with dignity and humbleness. He will be missed by many and by me. My sympathies to the whole family.
