“ Janet and Denny,

Saw the news in the Auburn Star paper. Roger, Randy and I send our sincere condolences. What memories we have of our mothers friendship! Hope all goes well for you during this time. Again, thinking of you.

Sincerely,

The Stahly Boys,

Roger, Richard (Dickie) and Randy

“ I remember the Thanksgivings our families spent together. I will never forget the trip home from your house in Ligonier. It was snowing so hard that you couldn't see 30 feet in front of the car. We had Grandma Maxton in the car with us. No one spoke a word all of the way home. I didn't realize that Ligonier was so far from Angola.
