

Glen C. Wagner

August 6, 1938 - November 4, 2013

KNOX-Glen C. Wagner, 75, passed away Monday, November 4, 2013 in IU Health Starke Hospital, Knox, IN. Glen was born August 6, 1938 in Bass Lake, IN to William "Wiz" and Opel (Humes) Wagner and lived in the area all of his life.

Survivors include two sons, Ricky Wagner of Knox and Danny (Tanya) Wagner of Winamac; two grandchildren, Joseph Wagner of Bass Lake and LeAnna (Loren) Salzer of Jacksonville, NC; one great-grandson, Connor "Little Man" Salzer; one brother, Elmer Wagner of Culver and one sister, Lois Schoolman of Plymouth. He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother, Bob Wagner and a half-sister, June Ketcham.

Glen was a former employee of Rockwell Industries. He served in the U.S. Army National Guard for eight years. He was a member of the Eagle Creek Church and a past-member of the Golden Horseshoe Saddle Club. Glen formed the Starke County R.E.A.C.T. and combined it with the Civil Defense, serving as the president for ten years.

Funeral services will be Friday at 12:00 Noon (Central Time) in Rannells Funeral Home, Hamlet Chapel. Burial will follow at the Culver Masonic Cemetery where military graveside services will be conducted. Friends may call Friday at the funeral home from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 Noon.

Tribute Wall

AT

“ I became acquainted with Glen at Rockwell International Corp in Knox, IN. where they closed their doors in '82. Glen was our expert in setting-up and running I.D. grinders. I remember him well as a fellow employee and driving a blue Ford Bronco for years. RIP Glen

A.J. Tarquino - April 29, 2018 at 07:32 PM