

Gloria L. Harness

December 16, 1932 - August 12, 2024

Gloria L. Harness of Hamlet passed away on Monday, August 12, 2024, in Miller's Merry Manor, Culver following an illness. She was born on December 16, 1932, in Chicago to the late William and Louise Loepke, and was 91 years-old at the time of her death.

She lived in the area most of her life and on April 4, 1951, in Grovertown she married Marion "Cy" Harness who preceded her in death. Gloria previously worked at Bosworth's clothing store in Plymouth. She enjoyed traveling and driving the countryside with her husband. Most of all she cherished her family dearly.

Gloria is survived by one son Steven Harness of Grovertown; two grandchildren Jeff Harness of Nappanee and Robert (Angely) Fischbach of Bradenton, FL; two great grandchildren Lilly and Chris Fischbach. She is preceded in death by her husband; one son James Harness; one daughter-in-law Julie Harness; two sisters Marie and Darlene; and one brother William Jr.

Visiting hours will be from 11:30 to 12:30 CDT Tuesday, August 20, 2024, at Rannells Funeral Home, Hamlet Chapel. Gloria did not want a formal funeral, so following the Visitation we will have a Celebration of Life service at 1:00 CDT also on Tuesday, August 20 in Grovertown Cemetery, where she will be buried next to her husband Cy.

“ I knew Gloria through Bosworth's. She was the nicest person and always so helpful to her customers.

Steve, we are so sorry for the loss of your precious mother. She and your dad raised a terrific son.

With our sincere thoughts,
Ren and Beverly Van Gilder
