“ I am saddened to hear of Greg's sudden passing. We worked together at Hoosier Tire for many years. Greg was well liked and considered one of the "good guys" by his co-workers. But as great of a worker he was, Greg was an even greater husband and father to his boys. After Greg left Hoosier, we'd see each other occasionally at a ball game or at Krogers and he'd proudly talk about his sons and what good young men they had become. Rest in Peace my friend.

“ Of all the posts I've shared about deaths of freinds, mostly forom IDOC this is by far the hardest for me. I've just been informed of the passing of a very old and dear freind. Memories that are flood in into my mind are overwhelming. Regret is setting in when I think that I was just thinking it was time for a visit to see how Greg is doing. He was such a good man and ,as is often said, "would give you the shirt off his back." Greg married the love of his life from our graduating class and together they raised an outstanding family. I hope to see them soon. I suspect this will be an extremely rare ocation where I won't be able to speak.

“ To Greg's family. My thoughts are with you on the loss of your father and husband. I think I started first grade with Greg. Years after graduation I ran into him - what an awesome guy he had grown to be. Time sure has flown by and many of my classmates cross my mind now and then and Greg was one of those.

“ My condolences go out to Tammy and all the boys. I first met greg back in fifth grade. I came here not knowing anybody and I was scared.I remember him coming up to me and asked me my name. He said Hi! I'm Greg. I had an instant friend. He made all my worries go away in an instant. That was the Greg that I knew. He will be truly missed by all. I will always remember the last time that I talked to Greg. It was 3 months ago in a grocery store in Plymouth. You won't find a man that was more proud of his family than greg. until we meet again....
