June 25, 1945 - October 21, 2025

Hargis Bruce Salyer, 80, of Walkerton, Indiana, passed away on Tuesday, October 21, 2025, in Mishawaka, Indiana. He was born on June 25, 1945, in Rensselaer, Indiana, to the late Hargis Salyer and Walletha Howard.

On September 4, 1965, Bruce married the love of his life, Carolyn Susie (Alward) Salyer, in North Liberty, and together they built a beautiful life filled with love, laughter, and family.

Bruce worked as a real estate appraiser and agent, a profession that reflected his dedication, honesty, and strong work ethic. He was a pillar in his field, always willing to share his knowledge and lend a helping hand. His door was always open to clients, colleagues, and neighbors alike, serving our community with integrity and kindness. Bruce was known for his big heart and unwavering devotion to his family. His greatest joy came from supporting his grandchildren in all their sports and activities—he was their biggest fan and proudest supporter.

A true family man, Bruce loved spending time around the table playing cards, especially Euchre and Rook, where his fun-loving spirit and good humor always shined.

He is survived by his son, Paul Salyer; his daughter, Tina (Jamie) Plunkett; four beloved grandchildren, Kelsey (Brent) Hayes, Mariah (Matt) Strong, Morgan Plunkett, and Major Plunkett; and two great-grandchildren, Wyatt and Ellie. He is also survived by his sister, Jeri (David) Baker.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife Susie, and one sister,

Sandy Johnson.

In keeping with Bruce's wishes, he will be cremated, and no formal services will be held. His family takes comfort in knowing he is reunited with his beloved Susie and that his love and laughter will continue to live on in their hearts.
