“ Jack was a friend and sales associate at Premier Dental. He was a person I Enjoyed and respected for his dental knowledge . Jack was a good family
Man with a wonderful wife. His son Skip I remember well and I was proud of his becoming a Dentist. His love of the out doors and flying made him Special. I did manage to bring him to Seattle and fly with me to a few places In Washington state. When Jack went with 3M I retired and lost my Contact with him as I was now a "has been". My condolence to all of his
