“ To all of Jacquie's family--Greg, Dad--I am heartbroken to hear about Jacquie. I had no idea she was dealing with any illness. I have no words that will console you except to tell you how much I feel the loss. There is no one I have ever worked with that had a more kinder spirit and a seemingly endless bound of energy. She has always been a light when others were floundering. My heart goes out to all of you and I want you to know how much all who knew her celebrate her life. Her spirit certainly lives on within us. I am so sorry for your loss. Jan Fye

“ My sincere condolences to the Singleton family. Jacqueline was the bravest woman I know: she faced so many challenges yet never complained. I learned so much from her; how to be positive in the face of adversity and how to persevere instead of cry. She was a trusted confidante at work and I was honored to be her friend.

“ Dear Family of Jacquie,

I had no idea that death was so near! I was so sad to open the paper this morning and see Jacquie's obituary. May she rest in peace. In her always positive style, as she said last week, if the Lord's plan is for her to live on earth or to join him, she wins either way. Amen

As you all know, Jacquie was a very special person...to more people than you can imagine.

I hired her to be the Office Manager at Madison Center, Plymouth probably 10 years ago. In the interview, she won me over in 2 minutes, and she was shocked when I told her "you're it" and hired her on the spot. She was smart, she had wonderful problem solving skills, and she was a most loyal employee. Times were crazy at the Plymouth branch during that time. She was my eyes and ears. She kept the place running. I so valued her as a manager.

When she moved on from that very stressful job, we stayed in touch and met for lunch occasionally. She was such a delight. There are not many people in this world whose glass is so always overflowing. Even when she was in pain, she saw the good things that the pain brought. Not surprising.

I take comfort in the fact that she lived a full life. She didn't find "Mr. Right", and she always said she was looking, but that did not deter her from enjoying herself. She had so many friends, and she traveled, and she laughed and she loved life...and she appreciated everyone and everything so much(even before she was ill)! What more can one ask.

I know that you, her family, took very good care of her. She loved you dearly, and told me all about you. She will be remembered, for sure. I will miss her.

“ I am So sorry for your loss, to all who new her she was a blessing to be around, besides knowing her from North Liberty I was blessed to work with her when she went to Calvary Temple in South Bend. She was a blessing to our little 4 and 5 year olds and to us..the kids loved her and she was so good for them. I am so sorry I did not keep in touch with her after she left and is something I will regret. She was truly one of God's angels , you could tell by the glow that surrounded her when she walked in the room. I know the last time I talked to her I remember remarking that she wanted to find Mr. Right but God had different plans for her. Any man would have been blessed to find her..God bless your family and my prayers , thoughts and love are with you.

“ My deepest sympathies to Jaqueline's family, I worked with her at Neighborcare and she was always the one to brighten the room with her positive attitude. She always had a smile on her face and could make anyone feel better when they were feeling down. May she find "Mr. Right" now that she is in heaven.

“ Jackie was the funniest person and she would always have the wackiest things happen to her. She would come to Arizona and share them with our family. She was my sister Sandy's best friend from high school and also a good friend to our family. She would come over after school or on weekends with her guitar and sing and play. She could really sing. The girl had a good set of pipes!!

“ To Jacqui's family,

I am sorry to hear of your loss. Several years ago I was in a business networking group with Jacqui. Her friendly and cheerful smile and zest for living were contagious. Although our paths have not crossed for several years, she was an encouragement to many.

“ I met Jacquie thru my wife Sandy 30+ years ago. I knew right away she was a very special, unique lady with her smile and positive attitude and our shared love of Notre Dame football. I could always count on a phone call from Jacquie to talk about the Notre Dame games each week during football season. I miss those weekly phone calls!

Love and miss you and you will always have a special place in my and Sandy's hearts:)

“ How do you sum up 39 years of a very close friendship. All of us will miss you every day, but you are forever in our hearts. I will hold dear the memories of our very special Route 66 trip last year. You told me many times that we were meant to take that trip last year and you were right. I have 39 years of wonderful memories and I am comforted by knowing you have gone to a better place and you are healthy now. I love you and I miss you.
