“ My heart goes out to the Bottorff/Burger family and friends who knew and loved Janice. I hope there is some comfort in knowing that she lived such a good life and is now with all her family and friends who have gone before her. Janice will surely be greatly missed by so very many who adored her, including me.

“ I have many fond memories of your Mom and Dad. I worked with your Mom at Plas/steel until 1975 until I moved away. My husband and I used to play cards with your folks. My son & husband is buried near your Dad. Every once in a while I would see your Mom there around Memorial Day. Janice was a dear lady to me.
