“ We were so lucky to be their grand kids! We would stay the night at their house friday nights and stay up late. Gram was kind of a night owl, but yet she would be up early making us breakfast. She sure spoiled us! My fondest memories were playing badminton with her, and also just teasing her. She had a playful sense of humor! Gram, until I see you in heaven I will be missing you! I'm sure you and papa have an awesome flower garden to enjoy, be there to pick on you some day!

“ I remember when Janice and her family moved into Walkerton. It was during WWII. They soon moved into West York. I knew the family well and was pleased when she married. Always the kind, gentle young lady, Janice will be missed by all.
