

Janyce E Ogle

April 5, 1949 - April 7, 2022

WALKERTON –Janyce E. Ogle passed away on Thursday, April 7, 2022 in Northwest Health, LaPorte Hospital following an illness. She was born on April 5, 1949 in Chicago to the late James T. and Helen (Reed) Hughes, and was 73 years-old at the time of her death.

She lived in the area most of her life coming from Chicago and was a retired LPN at Pilgrim Manor Nursing Home in Plymouth. On October 25, 1969 in North Liberty, she married the love of her life Claude Ogle Jr. who also preceded her in death. Janyce attended the Koontz Lake Missionary Church and loved to sew and crochet. Everyone was welcome in her home, you never left hungry, and she took care of anyone who walked into her circle. Most of all she loved her family dearly, especially her grandchildren.

Janyce is survived by: one son Claude (Michelle) Ogle of Plymouth; one daughter Rhonda Ogle of Walkerton; three grandchildren Dustin Ogle of Walkerton, Allie (Daniel) Bollinger of North Liberty, and Erin Ogle of Plymouth; one great-grandson Jordan Ogle; a special family friend that was like a daughter Liz Locke of Knox; two brothers James (Colleen) Hughes of South Bend and Edward (JoAnn) Hughes of Walkerton; and one sister Mary Rollings of Plymouth. She is preceded in death by: her parents, husband, a daughter Natalie Ogle; and a sister Irene Mikesell.

It was Janyce's wishes to be cremated. A Celebration of Life gathering will be held at a later date.

Tribute Wall

DA

“ Sending prayers for comfort I'm Dolly I was a nurse that worked with your mom on and off for several years I thought a lot of Jan She was a very good nurse with a kind heart She sure loved her family!! I'm disappointed I hadn't met up with her recently I appreciated your family Hugs and prayers for comfort

Dollise Archer - April 27, 2023 at 01:11 AM