“ A young CNA she was at CKLC. Huge smile and silly laugh. Your love for the sisters was just amazing. I truly enjoyed working with you back then. I'm so glad I got to see you when I did, generally in a store shopping lol.... You left behind some amazing kids that I hope they will know how special you were and not just the bad stuff...I pray God protects them from harm and they make you proud as you look over them from above...

“ I know her. I love her, she has such a crazy spirit and an infectious smile. She was just so wild and free spirited, she loved her girls so much and her boys too. She had a special spot in her heart though for her girls and her dad. I never got to meet her. We were online friends. I love her so much, it is surreal to me that she is gone. My heart is with her family, her children, especially the older ones who are really being impacted by this. I love your jokes girl, I already miss you. Lighting a candle for you. I'll keep msging you on messenger too. If there is anything I can Do to help, someone pls contact me. Sending so much love.
