“ So very sad to hear this tragic news. Jen was such an amazing person and the world will be less without her. Always carry her in your heart and speak her name out loud for they say doing so will keep her with you always. Praying for all of you to have strength through this hard time ahead. Adam, I have no words to express the sorrow and grief of your loss. May faith and the Lord above see you and your children through. Prayers for you, children, and for Jen.
