

Joan F. Fisher

August 10, 1947 - August 4, 2021

KNOX – Joan F. Fisher of Knox passed away on Wednesday August 4, 2021 in her home following an illness. She was born on August 10, 1947 in Indianapolis to the late Julius Larson and Irene McClung, and was 73 years-old at the time of her death.

She lived in the area most of her life. On January 29, 1966 in North Judson, she married her beloved husband Melvin Fisher Sr. who preceded her death on August 30, 2013. Together she and Melvin owned and operated Fisher's Asphalt and more recently Kankakee Valley Auction. She was a very hard-working lady that loved watching movies. Most of all she loved her family dearly.

Joan is survived by five children Melvin (Sonja) Fisher Jr. of Knox, Kelly (Heather) Fisher of Knox, Kelvin (Jill Jamrozy) Fisher of Hanna, Larry (Angie) Fisher of Knox, and Shelly (Jason) Simon of Knox; twelve grandchildren Hailey and Hana Simon, Payden Goss, Christina and Bart Fisher, Alex and Andrew Fisher, and Dalton, Allyssa, Logan and Raylynn Fisher, Blake Fisher; two great-grandchildren; one sister Shirley Brummett of Indianapolis. She is preceded in death by her parents and husband.

Joan's wishes were to be cremated and she will be laid to rest next to her husband Melvin in Round Lake Cemetery. The Rannells Funeral Home is honored to be entrusted with Joan's care and arrangements.

Tribute Wall

PB

“ We have known the Fisher family for many years. Melvin and Joan raised hard-working children. She will be missed at the auction barn and by her family. God rest her soul.

Tim & Peg Brettin

Peg Brettin - August 06, 2021 at 08:27 AM

PS

“ Joan was my aunt she will be missed by many people joan had a heart of gold joan and uncle chop raised good hard working and honest kids i.love u all

Pam sparks - August 05, 2021 at 06:54 PM