“ I remember John when we were very little. My sister's and I and Dana, Janet and Alison Anderson, Loren (can't remember his last name), Beverly Minter. I remember a birthday party when we were all there. That was many, many years ago!
Condolences to John's family.

“ I was the secretary at Grovertown High School when John taught there. My twins, Jack and Jill Awald were in his high school swing choir and band. Our daughter Pam was also in the band. John loved to do anything to make things better for he students. We have kept in touch with a Christmas card and a message in it each year. He was such a "good guy". Mary Ann and Bob Awald
