“ There are no words to say how very much I love you and will miss you. You been my very best friend for 31 years with all our ups and downs but I would do it all over again. My heart is broken and there's no way to piece it back together without you. I love you honey and I so wish you were here with me. Where did 31 years go too. I guess we were enjoying life. God, how I love and miss him. I'm so sorry Lord that you needed him more than me. I Def needed him with me. All my love Johnny, Love Me.

“Dad you are the tall man I know. I will always remember our long phone conversations that were hilarious. All the times we spent together I will cherish forever. You left too soon I feel. I never wanted you to go. But I know that I will see you again. I just wished I didn't have to wait till my end days to see you again. I love you dad.
