“ Joey was one of my son's best buddies in school, and after graduation. He'd come to our house and play video games with Tristan and Derek. I loved his bubbly personality and sense of humor. He was a very polite young man and I was thankful my son had becomes friends with him. I am so sorry to hear his life was cut short. I am thankful to have known him and he always brought a smile to my face. He will be missed.May God bring you peace and comfort and the strength you will need in the days ahead as you move forward.
