

Juanita Marie Oliver

July 3, 1938 - March 2, 2026

Juanita Marie Oliver, 87, of LaPorte, Indiana, passed away peacefully at her daughter's home in Hamlet on March 2, 2026.. She was born on July 3, 1938, in Chicago to William "Bill" Michael Truex and Ruth Louise (Rook) Truex. Juanita devoted her life to her family as a homemaker, a role she embraced with love, strength, and grace. She was a beautiful mother, an amazing grandmother, and the heart of her family. Her home was a place of comfort, creativity, and faith.

A gifted artist, Juanita found joy in expressing herself through her artwork. She also had a deep interest in researching herbal remedies and crafting herbal tinctures, always seeking natural ways to care for those she loved. Above all, she had a deep and abiding faith in the Lord, which guided her throughout her life and brought her peace and strength.

She is survived by her three children: Jennifer (Robert) Berg; Jody (Terry) Corey; and Lisa Corey. She also leaves behind 54 beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren who will carry forward her love, creativity, and faith.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; five children, Andrea Louise Clayton, Leo Eugene Stack III, Kathy Jo Ganga, Johnny Oliver and Laurie Renay Oliver; one grandson, Ron Wood Jr.; as well as one brother and one sister.

Per Juanita's wishes, there will be no services held. There will be a celebration of life being held at a later date.

Her family takes comfort in knowing she is at peace and reunited with those who have gone before her. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered by all who were blessed to know her.

“ When I first met Juanita I was so impressed by her vitality and her spunkness that reminded me of her daughter Jodi. She always reminded me of a mother I wished I had and her kids are so blessed to have had her as a mother as long as they did and the love and caring that she gave.
