“ We spent many holidays with Uncle Chet and Aunt Kaye I remember one special New Year Day phone call from Aunt Kaye she said did you know that Ridge Road had five lanes I said no when did that happen she said Uncle Chet just created one getting back home to Lansing, ll we laughed so hard. Whenever we got together which was almost every weekend a poker game was played and the usual same guys were at the table. Surprisingly all got along. My husband Walt and my son Michael helped Uncle Chet build their house in Hamlet which my husband designed with their approval offer the house plan. I remember some of the quotes Aunt Kaye had one was “you don’t ask a mailman to go for a walk”. Love you forever and ever Aunt Kaye and Uncle Chet thanks for the memories. ♡♡
