“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the whole Smisek family. I grew up I their farm house in Grovertown. Indiana. My mom and dad started renting their house when I was five years old and lived there all throughout my school years. That is when I first met Laddie and his wife.

They both are very sweet people and Will be missed dearly.

I kept in touch with them throughout the years.

With deepest sympathies.

“ Laddie was quite a man with high intelligence! He would do anything for you. I'm sure he is in heaven riding those antique cars and tractors and enjoying Elaine's company. Very nice man.
