“ So sorry to hear about Larry passing. He was always such a nice guy. So friendly. I hate hearing that he is gone. When we were in Kindergarten I think it was, he stole a ring from Dee and gave it to me. When she found out, he had to ask me for the ring back lol! I will never forget his big smile and how well he always treated me when I ran into him even years after we were out of school. Rest in peace Larry!

Such a kind and caring nephew. He was just here last week to help us outside. He saw that I was shivering and took off his coat and gave it to me. A true gentleman, you will be missed and thought of daily. Much love, Aunt Susie

Will always love my countless memories with Lil Larry. We had a GREAT time together learning to ride bikes together, playing all day and night if our moms let us and sometimes did anyway. We were always buds and I'm just heartbroken over losing such a lifelong friend. It was ALWAYS a pleasure and treasure running into him and hanging out when we did. I will always love you, bro. Prayers to the family and friends who have experienced this incredible loss. 😭 May God Almighty bless you all during this time with a healing heart in Christ Jesus.
