

LaVerna Ewing

March 31, 1923 - June 12, 2011

KNOX-LaVerna Ewing, 88, passed away Sunday, June 12, 2011 in Millers Merry Manor, Culver, IN. Mr. Ewing was born March 31, 1923 in Kokomo, IN to Ray and Ina (Jordan) Myers. On December 18, 1941 in Mishawaka, IN she was married to Carroll Ewing, who preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her parents, one brother and one sister. Survivors include one daughter, Cathy Benko of Knox; three sons, Gerald Ewing of Oak Grove, Richard (Dolly) Ewing of Culver and Jeff (Renee) Ewing of Argos; nine grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Ewing owned and operated C&L Food Center in Oak Grove with her late husband for fifty-two years. She was a member of Eagle Creek Church in Knox, the Knox VFW Auxiliary and the Washington Township Fire Department Auxiliary. She was also a previous member of many civic organizations.

A memorial service will be Friday at 11:00 a.m. (Central Time) at Rannells Funeral Home, Hamlet Chapel with Rev. Ed Hasnerl officiating. Cremation has taken place and burial will follow at Oak Hill Cemetery, Plymouth. Friends may visit with the family on Friday from 9:00 a.m. until the time of services.

Tribute Wall

CB

“ Mom was always strong willed and ambitious lady, never let anything keep her down. Mom loved her cats and music.

---

Cathy Benko - April 29, 2018 at 08:10 PM

L(

“ I'm so sorry for your loss I just ran into Richard last week while you were in with your mother in law. I'm really sorry I didn't take the time to see you also Dolly. You two take care and i will keep you in my prayers.

---

Laurie Hayn (Hatter) - April 29, 2018 at 08:10 PM