

Linda K. Williams

September 3, 1953 - March 4, 2021

WALKERTON – Linda Williams of Walkerton passed away on Thursday, March 4, 2021 in her home following an illness. She was born on September 3, 1953 in Knox to the late Charles Puckett and Aldene (Jackson) Collins and was 67 years-old at the time of her death.

Linda lived in the area most of her life and had retired from IN Tek. On September 6, 1995 she married Johnnie Glen Williams who preceded her in death in 2015. She was a member of the Walkerton United Pentecostal Church and the United Steel Workers of America Local 9231. She was a hard-working lady that would do anything for anybody. Most of all she cherished her family dearly.

Linda is survived by one daughter Shelley Haddix of North Liberty; two stepsons Lance Williams of South Bend and Michael Williams of Mississippi; ten grandchildren; ten great grandchildren; three brothers Bill Collins of North Judson, Jerry Collins of Walkerton, and David Collins of Maryland; three sisters Valerie Bolen of Walkerton, Shirley Gould of Florida, and Shirley Ann Whitaker of Francesville. She is preceded in death by her father; mother and stepfather William Dave Collins; husband; one daughter Kimberly Smith; one son Dewey Smith Jr.; one grandson William Preston Reed Allen; and one brother Randall.

Funeral Services will be at 1:00 EST Monday, March 8 at the Walkerton United Pentecostal Church. Visiting hours will be from Noon to 1:00 Monday, also at the Church. Burial will follow at Highland Cemetery in North Judson. Memorial contributions may be made to the Walkerton United Pentecostal Church. The Rannells Funeral Home, Koontz Lake Chapel is honored to be entrusted with Linda's care and arrangements.

“ Linda gave me much needed advice and support when I started my career here at I/N Tek. We had many a good talk on break time sitting at the picnic table soaking up alittle sun before we went back at it on our jobs. Will miss her wisdom, her humor, and her laugh. Rest in peace my friend.
