“ I am so sorry to learn of Lon's passing. Life was difficult for Lon recently but am comforted to know he is now in heaven with his Shirley. I will miss seeing Lon & Shirley at the grocery store when we would catch up a bit before I'd give him a hard time about shopping on "old people's day" or him parking in the handicapped space when I "knew" there was nothing wrong with him. I wasn't going to stop giving him the business until I got a grin from him. I have many memories of Lon and all of them are good. He lived a good life and his family is a reflection of that. RIP Uncle Lon, you'll be missed but never forgotten.

“ So sorry to hear of Lon's passing especially so soon after Shirley passed away. They are together again! Don't recall ever meeting him but may have when I was young. My dad, Owen, and Lon were first cousins. Hugs to all of you!
