

Lowell E. Webb

April 23, 1932 - May 16, 2023

SOUTH BEND – Lowell E. Webb of South Bend passed away on Tuesday, May 16, 2023 at Saint Joseph Regional Medical Center in Plymouth, Indiana. He was born on April 23, 1932 in Versailles, Indiana to the late Vern and Nadine (Stone) Webb. He was 91 years old at the time of his death.

Lowell married the love of his life, the late Marjorie Hickman in December of 1962, in Roseland, IN. Lowell was also a proud Steel Worker for US Steel, where he had worked a little over 30 years. He proudly served in the Army Reserves, demonstrating immense bravery and commitment. The values of discipline, loyalty, and perseverance instilled in him from his service carried on throughout the remainder of his life. Beyond his military service, Lowell possessed an unparalleled passion for firearms. He was an avid gun collector and had much knowledge on them. In addition to guns, Lowell had a deep fascination with cars. He was a true motorhead, always seeking opportunities to wheel and deal whether it was purchasing or trading automobiles. Among Lowell's many passions, his unwavering love for beer stood out. He cherished the simple pleasures of life and found solace in enjoying a cold beer with loved ones.

Lowell is survived by his daughter Debbie Miller of South Bend, IN; five grandchildren Angela (Brad) Brees of Fishers, IN, Chris (Jenny) Miller of New Carlisle, IN, Amanda (HC) Williams of Knox, IN, Dan (Tara) Webb of Grovertown, IN and Mike (Stephanie) Webb of Iowa; and twelve great grandchildren. He is preceded in death by his parents, his wife, one son Tom Webb and one sister Hazel Eilers.

Lowell wanted to be cremated upon his passing and his requests are being honored. There are no services planned at this time.

Tribute Wall

JE

“ My Uncle Lowell was one of the funniest nicest good hearted Uncle ever! He was always fun to be with and it's going to be hard to not ever get together with him again! Love You and gonna miss you Uncle Lowell!!!

John Eilers - May 16, 2023 at 02:30 PM